They follow them, corral them and make disproportionate and abusive use of tear gas and rubber bullets," said Roque.

But there are a couple of rare forms of glaucoma in which the eye pressure is usually normal but can go from normal to high very suddenly, and this can cause pain.